

COMPLAINTS HANDLING PROCEDURE DESCRIPTION

1. Introduction

- 1.1. Blue Cube (Malta) Limited (the “Company”) is dedicated to providing the best possible customer experience to its clients, it understands that sometimes there may be issues or circumstances that could make a client want to submit a complaint. In such cases the Company is committed to ensure fair and consistent handling of complaints, disputes, and any issues in a swift and clear manner.
- 1.2. Clients who believe that the Company has violated their rights or legally protected interests in the provision of crypto-asset services must first contact the Company in writing and state their claims and the circumstances of the complaint.

2. Submission of a Complaint

- 2.1. You should file a complaint no later than within 3 months of learning about a violation of his/her rights and/or legitimate interests in one of the following ways:
 - 2.1.1. in writing by submitting it directly in writing to the CEO or Compliance Officer at the Company’s registered office by regular or registered mail;
 - 2.1.2. in writing to the Company’s e-mail support@blockchain.com; or
 - 2.1.3. in writing via an online customer support form located at Submit a request – Blockchain Support Center.
- 2.2. Complaints may be submitted in English and any other EU language in which the Company conducts marketing activities.
- 2.3. A complaint should specify the following: full name, contact details; date of the complaint; dispute matter; and other circumstances related to the complaint.
- 2.4. When filing a complaint, you should submit any supporting documents in possession in relation to the complaint.
- 2.5. You may file a complaint by using the template set out in Annex 1, which provides detailed requirements on information to be provided when filing a complaint.
- 2.6. The Company reserves the right to decline to handle a complaint if the complaint was filed in violation of the procedure discussed above. The Company reserves the right not to investigate anonymous, unreadable complaints; as well as complaints that do not contain sufficient identifying data for the Company or if:
 - 2.6.1. the complaint concerns the Company’s activity which is not regulated by the Malta Financial Services Authority (i.e. is not related to the provision of regulated services);
 - 2.6.2. the complaint concerns activity for the performance of which the Company is not responsible;
 - 2.6.3. the complaint was submitted more than 3 months after the alleged violation of Client’s rights and/or legitimate interests occurred;
 - 2.6.4. the complaint is submitted via oral conversation with the Company’s employee and immediately resolved via the same oral conversation with no record of it being later confirmed by mail, e-mail or online customer support form as per Clause 2.1 above.
- 2.7. Complaints are filed and handled by the Company free of charge.

3. Examination of Complaints and Submission of a reply

- 3.1. Within no later than 3 business days of receipt of the Complaint, the Company will assess if the complaint is admissible, and either confirm receipt or reject the complaint.
- 3.2. The complaint shall be examined, and a written reply shall be provided to the client no later than within 15 business days from the date of receipt of the complaint. In exceptional cases, when due to reasons beyond the Company’s control, a reply cannot be submitted to the complainant within 15 business days, the Company will send a preliminary reply and clearly indicate the reasons for delay in replying and the term by which the complainant will receive the final reply. In any case, the maximum term for the submission of a reply to a complaint cannot exceed 35 business days from receipt of the complaint.
