Glean Year in Review: 2025

Learn what Work AI delivered at scale.

In 2025, Glean became trusted Work AI infrastructure for leading enterprises—crossing >$250M ARR (>150% YoY growth), powering a 20T+ tokens-per-year run rate, and driving 270M+ Glean Assistant actions across high-stakes workflows.

This report breaks down what those numbers really mean for how work gets done.

In this report, you'll learn:

- Where Work AI created measurable impact. How customers like TIME, Dell, and T-Mobile used Glean for account planning, audits, incident response, operating reviews, and more—and what changed in cycle times, coverage, and productivity.
- The 10 shifts that defined Work AI in 2025. The platform, governance, and org changes that separated stalled pilots from production-grade, compounding value.
- How leaders are preparing for 2026. The principles we're using to safely scale AI across functions, models, and tools—and what we're learning from real-world deployments heading into 2026.
